

HISTORY OF OFFICERS

Update Nine Glangeaud, 2 September 2020

The Marcé Society (MS) was officially launched during the first academic meeting on puerperal mental disorders held in Manchester in July 1980. The first MS president was Ian Brockington, Channi Kumar was vice-president, and Frank Margison was secretary/bulletin editor. The first "real" biennial general meeting (BGM), however, was held in London in 1982, organised by Channi Kumar at the Institute of Psychiatry. Channi Kumar was elected president at the BGM held in Oakland (California) in 1984. The next president was John Cox, elected at the 1986 Nottingham BGM. The BGMS were then held in Keele in 1988 and in York in 1990. Margaret Oates took over the Presidency at the 1989 annual meeting in Amsterdam, succeeded by Gene Paykel, who took over at the 1992 Edinburgh BGM and served until 1994. Brice Pitt was elected at the 1994 BGM in Cambridge, followed by Mike O'Hara in London (1996), etc.
